Welcome

Welcome to The Vineyard; where every shared moment with our community is a chapter in our story. In the late 1700s, the lands surrounding Vineyard were vital to Sydney's success; becoming known as the colony's 'bread basket'. Windsor Rd was built to bridge the gap between farm lands and urban areas.

The original Tourmaline Hotel opened in 1973 by well-known horse trainer Tommy Sewell. He named the venue after his prized race horse King Tourmaline.

The growing local area deserves a destination that will grow with you, for you. Today we bridge the gap between the past and present by welcoming you to discover a new meeting place, a place to come together.

Our Wine History

Wine growing in the Windsor region dates back to the 1810s, with the first vines planted by Frenchman Jean Pierre Ouvrier. He rose to fame for his vineyard 'The Vineyard', regarded as 'a great resort of the Windsor people', and bestowed the name on the suburb we know today as Vineyard.
